The Diocesan Examination was held in the Schools on March 15. The Report on the special subjects in all classes was "Very good on the whole. Evidently the Religious Instruction of the children has been carried on carefully and systematically throughout the year, and great praise is due to the Teachers for the good work they have done."

The Report also draws special attention to the good results of the teaching in the Infant Department.

A Parochial Tea and Concert will be held in the Schools on April 13 in aid of the Churchyard Fund. The programme will be exceedingly varied, and will include songs, duets, dances, and instrumental music, etc. The following ladies and Healey as "Lord Thirlmere," and Mr. Browett as "Opkins, the footman, who is mistaken for his Lordship," in disguise, causing many humorous situations. Miss Healey, Miss Browett and Miss Thomas take the ladies' parts and Master Theo. Newsome the page. This concert should not be missed.
