The Rev. C. Pepys preached on behalf of the S.P.G. on 14th at 11 a.m. The offertory, £1 12s., was very disappointing, and shows that we need to be taught the importance of this work. We should be glad to receive any donations to augment this sum.

Services on Sundays during this month will be held in the Schools at 6.30 p.m.

There will be a Celebration of the Holy Communion on Sunday, the 1st, at 8 a.m.

The Church will be re-opened on September 1. The special services will be announced later.

The Rev. V. Fortescue, Corley, and Rev. H. Weir, Allesley, have kindly consented to take any duty required during the Vicar's absence. Notice can be sent by Mr. J. Craner.

The Sunday School children assembled in full force for their outing to Stoneleigh on the 8th. The day seemed very unpromising, a steady downpour in the morning created much gloom in the day school, and many distracted eyes kept wandering to rain-splashed windows. However, shortly before starting time, the day brightened, and we were indeed fortunate in having a fine afternoon. The procession of nine brakes looked very imposing. A banner and some flags would be a great acquisition; perhaps some of our kind friends would present us with these.

Visions, too, of a village drum and fife band might easily be realized if a ten-pound note happened to come our way.

The time at Stoneleigh passed only too quickly; the boys found a good cricket pitch, others explored in every direction, till the welcome tea-bell sounded.

The tea was thoroughly appreciated, and those responsible are to be congratulated on the excellent arrangements.

Before leaving cheers were given for the subscribers to our "treat" and the teachers. The deer came to see us off, and to finish up the remains of the feast.

The Committee for Higher Education have decided to hold an Evening School during the winter for young men and young women.

The Education Committee have sanctioned the following subjects: arithmetic, English, nature knowledge; and practical gardening (boys only). We hope that many will take advantage of this splendid opportunity for increasing their education, and fitting themselves for higher and more responsible positions in after life. Names should now be sent in to Mr. J. Dalton, Hon. Sec.
