WHITSUNDAY.

Holy Communion, 7 a.m., 8 a.m., 12 noon.

The Girls' Guild held their first Sale of Work on May 2. It was a most successful effort. We congratulate the children and all who assist in the management of the Guild on the result, which exceeded our highest expectations. The Parish should be grateful for this work, which has been going on so quietly and steadily, and has now given the funds to start a good library.

It was encouraging to see so many present during the afternoon; Miss Singer and her helpers were very busy, and indeed the tea was excellent. It was a pity the men kind could not overcome their natural shyness and come in. Every one appreciated the concert, in which the following ladies took part: Miss Ratliff, Miss G. Barton, Miss Townshend, Miss Picken, Miss B. Hillman, Miss Payne. We would also express our thanks to Messrs. H. Lodsby, F. Osborne and J. Ryan for their strenuous labours in arranging the stalls.
