CONFIRMATION.

Bishop Mylne writes: "I am compelled with great unwillingness to defer your Confirmation from November 3 to 10. I have been peremptorily ordered to Aix-les-Bains for treatment, and my doctor will not hear of my beginning work early enough to keep my engagement with you as originally settled."

The Service will be held at 5 p.m. The early hour will doubtless prevent many from attending, but we hope that all Communicants, who can arrange it, will be present.

S. P. G.

November 8 will be devoted to Foreign Missions.

Services:—

8 a.m., Holy Communion, with special intercessions.

11 a.m., Matins, preacher, the Rev. W. H. Whimberley, from British Guiana.

3 p.m., Children's Service, the Vicar.

Collections in aid of the Society.

The annual meeting will be held in Coventry on the following day.

"The enclosed magazine gives some idea of the great work that is going on at the "front." The Magazine Distributors will be pleased to leave a copy every month for the moderate sum of threepence per annum.

The Harvest Festival this year stands out even from other festivals for bright services, large congregations, quality of sermons, wealth of decoration, generous and united support of all members, and not least the successful efforts of our Choir.

The Churchwardens appealed for £30, and it is a happy augury of Church feeling and loyalty in the parish, that all but a few shillings of this large amount was presented in the collections.

Every one must have helped, and it is a matter of deep thankfulness that our Church is now free from debt.

The decorations, somewhat more elaborate than hitherto, were most effective. The pulpit by Mr. C. Adcock; chancel, Miss Rotherham and Miss Mitchell; windows, the Misses Barton; standards, Mrs. Butters, Mrs. Sleath, Miss Caddick; desk and lectern, Miss Ratliff; gallery, Miss Lloyd, Miss Turner, Miss Tuckley, Miss Lewis. We would also thank the kind donors of flowers, fruit, vegetables and bread, and Mr. H. Sleath and Mr. Whittem for supplying corn.
