SUNDAY SCHOOL TREAT.

Heavy showers on the morning of the 19th caused us no little anxiety. But during the afternoon, though the rain swept the surrounding country, the Grange field was bathed in glorious sunshine.

The children's party was probably the brightest and happiest we have had. By Miss Rotherham's kindness, house-room, and indeed every other convenience, was provided for the "workers."

The catering arrangements under the management of Miss Townshend and Miss Hands were excellent.

The swing-boats and horses were huge attractions; free rides all day seems like a bit of "fairy-land."

Races of all kinds had been arranged. It was good to see so much keenness; two girls, same age, same home, helped themselves liberally from the glittering prize array.

Some parents accepted the invitation of the teachers. We were glad to see them, but there might have been many more. The "parents' race" fell through.

After the prize distribution, hearty cheers were given for the subscribers and teachers. We would also thank Mr. J. Townsend for the use of the field.
